

With a fresh take on ANZAC Day, the history and the issues, this 8-page mini newspaper will look at how Kiwis at home dealt with and participated in the world wars.

Content will include:

- Defending NZ: the home guard; fears of foreign attack
- The changed workplace and economy
- Public attitudes to the world wars
- Propaganda, censorship and curtailment of freedom of speech
- Medical care and treatment of soldiers in NZ
- New Zealand’s prisoner of war camps
- Maori participation in the wars

Teachers ordering this special edition will receive:

- A class set of ‘The Home Front’ mini newspapers
- Teacher notes that include all relevant curriculum links, extra activities and information
- A class set of your local Fairfax newspaper
